

Discover Aylesbury Basin

The Aylesbury Arm of the Grand Union Canal has an exciting new town centre basin! It's a great starting point for family walks and to see the bustle of life at the water's edge. It's one of the best places on the canal system to watch birds.

A little bit of history

The Aylesbury Arm transported grain, timber, coal and building materials until the 1960s. Threatened with closure, a team of canal enthusiasts worked hard to keep it open and encourage the recreational use of the Arm. Today, their dedication work has paid off with a new marina located just outside Aylesbury.

Five things to do at Aylesbury Basin

- Cycle along the towpath and look for two rare staircase locks (at the Marsworth end) where the middle gate joins the top and bottom locks.
- Walk along to the new Circus Field marina and chat to boaters preparing to set off on their canal holidays from the marina.
- Spot boats being repaired in the new wet and dry docks in the marina.
- Check out the exciting new architecture surrounding the town centre basin.
- Explore the historic market town of Aylesbury.

Did you know?...

It's best to feed ducks tasty treats like:

- porridge oats
- rice
- peas
- chopped lettuce
- birdseed

Whilst they will gobble up white bread, crisps and chips its junk food for you and ducks!
